2.3 How does Momentum Metropolitan collect Personal Information?

The company collects information either directly from you, the data subject, the employer or through financial services intermediaries. In certain instances, Momentum Metropolitan may appoint third parties to collect information on its behalf. The source from which personal information was obtained, if not directly from the data subject, will be disclosed. The collection may also include collection of data from wearable fitness devices where applicable, and you will always be notified to grant access where this is applicable.

2.4 What type of Personal Information does Momentum Metropolitan collect?

Personal information collected by Momentum Metropolitan can include, but not limited to, and depending on the transaction, a data subject's name, contact, birth date, identity number, gender, employment details, marital, family, policy, location information, online identifier, bank account, medical or health information.

When personal information is collected, the company will indicate the purpose for the collection and whether the information required is compulsory or voluntary. This is indicated on the application forms. Should you have any queries around the reason for collection of the mandatory information; you can consult your advisor.

We will also, only for applicable products, collect your health fitness information through fitness devices for products where this may be applicable. Third parties may be used to aid in the collection of such information. This information will be restricted to only the required information pertaining to the benefit of your product.

We will also collect your information where you have only partially completed and/or abandoned any information which you began to apply to our website and/or other online forms. Given that we already consider you a customer at this stage, we may use this information to contact you in order to remind you to complete outstanding information.

2.5 Potential consequences of refusing to provide personal information

Where we require personal information in order to provide you with our products and services (and benefits), your failure to provide us with the necessary information, may result in the MMH being unable to provide you with our products and services or assisting in claims. Where such services include financial advice, the appropriateness of the advice may be compromised if you do not provide complete and accurate information. You are responsible for informing MMH if your information changes.

2.6 When will we process your Personal Information?

We will only process your personal information for lawful purposes relating to our business if the following circumstances apply:

- You have consented thereto (where applicable), and/or
- A person legally authorised by you, the law or a court, has consented thereto, and/or
- It is necessary to conclude or perform under a contract we have with you, and/or

2.7 When will we process your special personal information?

We may process your special personal information in the following circumstances:

- If you have consented to the processing thereto, and/or
- If the processing is needed to create, use or protect a right or obligation in law, and/or
- If the processing is for statistical or research purposes, and/or
- If the special personal information was made public by you, and/or
- If the processing is required by law, and/or
- If racial information is processed and the processing is required to identify you; and/or
- If you have granted a third-party application permission to collect the health fitness information from your mobile or wearable device (where applicable).
- If health information is processed, and the processing is to determine your insurance risk, or to comply with an insurance policy, or to enforce an insurance right or obligation, and/or
- If we do sanctions screening (against any sanctions list, we may in our sole discretion determine) and we may find reports of alleged criminal conduct or proceedings in this regard.

2.8 Personal Information in the Public Domain

Any information or personal information that any data subject makes known on any social media platform or any other media or internet publications remains information made public by the data subject and cannot be protected by Momentum Metropolitan and is not protected under the scope of POPIA. We encourage all clients who engage with us not to do so publicly on chatrooms or social media public forms as that information cannot be protected. The privacy policies of the specific platforms used for engagement will be the applicable to the protection regarding such data. Our formal channels such as our websites, call centres and mobile apps are the only platforms that can be managed, governed, and secured by Momentum Metropolitan and covered by this Privacy Policy.

- To process payments from their wallets.
- To enable you to participate in and make use of value-added products and services.
- To assess our lending and insurance risks; and/or
- For any other related purposes.

2.10 Processing Information of a child

Protecting privacy of children – MMH takes the privacy of children very serious. Children under the age of 18 years should obtain consent of a competent person acting on their behalf, before providing / submitting any personal information about themselves to MMH or any of their websites.

We will not require children under this age to provide any personal information other than that which is reasonably necessary to use the MMH.

If we determine that a user is under the age of 18, we will not use or maintain his/her personal information without the consent of a competent person acting on their behalf.

A child is a person who is defined as a child by a country's legislation, and who has not been recognised as an adult by the courts. We process the personal information of children if the law permits this. We will only process the personal information of children if any one or more of the following applies:

- A person with the ability to sign legal agreements has consented to the processing, being the parent or guardian or a competent person acting on behalf of the child.
- The processing is needed to create, use or protect a right or obligation in law, such as where the child is an heir in a will, a beneficiary of a trust, a beneficiary of an insurance policy or an insured person in terms of an insurance policy.
- The child's personal information was made public by the child, with the consent of a person who can sign legal agreements.
- The processing is for statistical or research purposes and all legal conditions are met.
- Where the child is an heir in a will, if required to give effect to the will.
- Where the child is a beneficiary of a trust, if required to give effect to the trust deed.
- Where the child is legally old enough to open a bank account without assistance from their parent or guardian.
- Where the child is legally old enough to sign a document as a witness without assistance from their parent or guardian.
- Where the child benefits from a bank account such as an investment or savings account; and/or
- Where the child is an insured person or beneficiary of an insurance policy, if required to give effect to the policy.

2.11 Who is responsible for processing your personal information?

- MMH is the responsible party for all personal information that is collected and used for the purposes POPIA laws, principles, and regulations.
- Selected third parties who provide MMH with services, including companies that provide us with technical support and assistance.
- MMH does make use of selected appointed operators who may be responsible for the execution of specific functions. MMH will always ensure that all the required legal documentation has been established and that your data is treated with confidentiality and in accordance to applicable laws.

2.12 Lawful basis and you agreeing to this Privacy Policy

The supply of your Personal Information is voluntary; however, you acknowledge that we cannot make certain products or services available to you if you do not wish to supply such Personal Information.

We collect personal information inter alia in the following instances:

- in the course of executing our statutory functions;
- via this website;
- during your attendance at MMH's premises;
- via our user applications, such as the Multiply Mobile Application;
- in connection with business transactions and services you initiate with us;
- when you are requesting access to information on our record; and/or
- where we are legally obliged to as part of a contractual agreement, statutory measure or as otherwise required by law.

We will take appropriate and reasonable technical and organisational steps to prevent any unauthorised access to, or disclosure of your personal information. We may also process your personal information where it is necessary to perform in terms of a contract with you or where it is necessary to comply with a legal or regulatory obligation.

2.13 Obtaining personal information about clients

We collect information about you:

- Directly from you.
- Based on your use of our products, services, or service channels (such as our websites, applications, and ATMs (in the case with your wallets)).
- Based on how you engage or interact with us, such as on social media, and through e-mails, letters, telephone calls, and surveys.

- Courts of law or tribunals.
- Participating partners, whether retail or online, in our customer loyalty reward programmes.
- Suppliers in the delivery of our wallet and payment services.
- Our joint venture partners.

- Marketing list providers.

Digital data transformation or aggregation services which you have authorised to collect activity, health or other digital data streams and share with us.

2.14 Retention of data

All client data including correspondence, voice recordings and documentation will be retained for as long as you remain a client. If the client relationship should terminate the data will not be retained for longer than what is legally required or required to be kept for evidence purposes and is in line with retention specified as per POPIA and other legislation in line with your specific product or service. Some laws may prohibit us from deleting certain data at the point of termination.

Please also refer to Data Subject rights in terms of deletion of data records.

2.15 Processing Information about Persons Related to a Juristic Person

If you are a juristic person, such as a company or close corporation, we may collect and use personal information relating to the juristic person's directors, officers, employees, beneficial owners, partners, shareholders, members, authorised signatories, representatives, agents, payers, payees, customers, guarantors, spouses of guarantors, sureties, spouses of sureties, other security providers and other persons related to the juristic person. These are related persons.

If you provide the personal information of a related person to us, you warrant that the related person is aware that you are sharing their personal information with us, and that the related person has consented thereto.

We will process the personal information of related persons as stated in this Privacy Policy, thus references to "you" or "your" in this Privacy Policy will include related persons with the necessary amendments.

2.16 Failing to provide Personal Information

A data subject may refuse to provide personal information. Failing to provide personal information may result in not being able to provide a quote on a product or service or accuracy on quotations. It may also result in a delay in the processing of claims or may negatively affect the outcome of the claim. In order to engage in any contract for any product or service it is mandatory to provide a specified list of personal information (truthfully and accurately) in line with minimality requirements and failing to provide said information may result in decline or refusal of product or service offerings or a delay in a service offering or processing of a claim or outcome of a claim.

2.17 Direct Electronic Marketing

If we are legally permitted to do so, Momentum Metropolitan may use your personal or other information to tell you about products, services and special offers from the company or other subsidiaries of Momentum Metropolitan. To receive this information, you have to opt-in, and you can opt out from receiving such information at any time, at no cost to you.

We will use your personal information to market financial, insurance, investments and other related products and services to you, but not share your information with any third-parties external to MMH for any marketing purposes. We will do this in electronic channels such as SMS, email and/or social media channels. If you are not our customer, or in any other instances where the law requires, we will only market to you by electronic communications with your consent or on your request. In all cases, you can request us to stop sending marketing communications to you at any time, at no cost to you. Momentum Metropolitan will never sell any data to any third party for the purposes of marketing or any other reason.

Please note that Momentum Metropolitan does not have control over Direct Electronic Marketing sent out by Independent Financial Advisors, and therefore cannot insure no contact from independent companies.

3 COOKIE NOTICE

3.1 What are cookies?

A cookie is a small text file stored on your device by the website you are visiting. It helps the website to remember information about your device and how you use the website. We use this information to make your visit to our site as easy and useful as possible. Please refer to our cookie policy for more information

3.2 What happens if you disable your cookie functionality?

Clearing or disabling cookies may limit your website functionality, and your functionality once you've logged in. You can limit the collection of your information by disabling cookies on your browser. You may also be able to modify your browser settings to require your permission each time a site attempts to set a cookie.

However, our website(s) (and many other websites) rely on cookies to enable certain functionality. If you choose to disable cookies, some of the services available on our website may not work properly.

3.3 Types of cookies we use?

There are two main types of cookies, i.e.

- Session cookies
 - When you close your browser, some cookies are deleted. These are called session cookies.
- Persistent cookies
 - Other cookies are stored on your device until they expire, or you choose to delete them. They are called persistent cookies. These cookies are sent back to us each time you visit our site.

3.4 What we use cookies for?

We use cookies for session management, user device identification and classification, traffic routing, and analytics.

3.5 Is your personal information at risk?

No, we will never save any personal information, including login details or other personal information on your computer.

4 CLOSE CIRCUTE TELEVISION (CCTV) FOOTAGE

We use CCTV monitoring to assist in protecting the company's employees and property. CCTV monitoring is only used to monitor public areas in the company. The information from the CCTV monitoring is only used for security and law enforcement, and to ensure public safety.

The use of CCTV to monitor public areas will be done in a way that does not violate the rights of anyone who enters the company's public areas. By entering any of the Momentum Metropolitan buildings, you consent to being recorded.

The information and images collected from CCTV monitoring will be kept in a secure manner and only people who are authorised will have access to. The images and information collected by the CCTV belongs to the company.

5 LOCATION SERVICES

We use location services for specific products and services through our websites and applications. The location services will only be switched on with the prior consent of the user. The use of location services is set out in the purpose of collection of data.

Your location services are required only for specific products or services such as Safe Dayz TM. And this data is collected through the Momentum mobile application. By not enabling your location services it may affect your benefits on your specific product. In order for Momentum to receive your ongoing journey data, the following is required:

- For your cellphone's GPS setting to be switched on at all times
- Frequent access to data and mobile internet services (cellular or wi-fi).

Your location sharing settings can be updated at any time by yourself by updating this on your mobile device under your settings.

6 MOBILE APPLICATIONS

Some of the mobile applications may make use of third parties to collect and share information with Momentum Metropolitan which are specific to the products that you have. The information may include your location services (see Location Services for details) and the collection of fitness/health information for Multiply.

For fitness data, the application makes use of the data stored on the “Health Connect” application on Android devices or “Health” application on iOS devices.

6.1 Health Connect for Android

Data accessed through Health Connect is regarded as personal and sensitive (special personal) information.

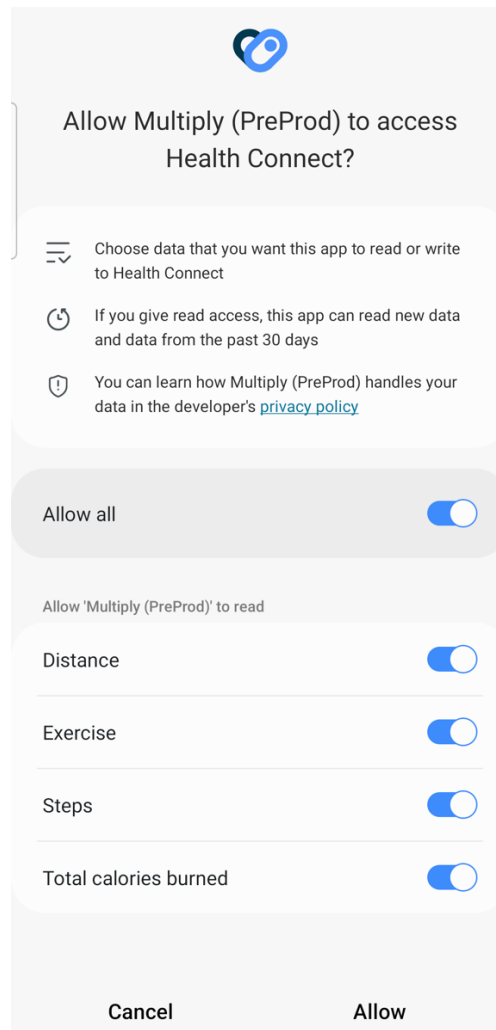

6.1.1 What data does Multiply collect?

Multiply collects your fitness activity which refers to but is not limited to your daily steps, calorie workouts, gym visits, event participation, resting heart rate, heart rate variance and any other fitness related data logged by the device user.

While using the Multiply application, in order to provide features of the application and your loyalty benefits, we may collect, with your prior permission:

- Information regarding your location
- Fitness activity data (i.e. sleep, daily movement, active calories and workouts, resting heart rate, heart rate variance, heart rate recovery, gym visits or related data)
- Health measurements (including but not limited to: glucose, blood pressure, cholesterol and BMI)

The image below shows the data that you as a user can select and allow to share. Please note that limiting the sharing may impact the rewards/benefits you get allocated.

6.1.2 What does Multiply do with fitness data?

This data is used to analyse your fitness activity and track your fitness and the rewards benefits associated with your fitness activity.

6.1.3 How does Multiply get the fitness data?

The data is securely transferred from your mobile/wearable device with your permission to a third party application to ensure that Multiply can access and use the data to assign your benefits/rewards.

6.1.4 Withdrawal of sharing consent for fitness data

You can withdraw access to the sharing of your fitness data at any point in time through your settings on your mobile/wearable device. By withdrawing consent to share the data with Multiply it may impact your benefit/reward allocation.

6.1.5 Limited Usage of fitness data

Multiply is a responsible party and will take all reasonable and appropriate steps towards adhering to applicable data privacy and protection laws. Your fitness data will not be shared or used in any manner other than for:

- Benefit/Reward allocation
- Fitness and health recommendations

Multiply will never sell or share your data to any third party, nor will your data be shared with a third party if it is not associated with your benefit/reward allocation or fitness and health recommendations. Multiply ensures all legal requirements including data protection are in place prior to any sharing of any information.

All conditions mentioned in this policy is applicable to fitness data obtained from mobile/wearable devices.

6.1.6 Managing your fitness data on the Multiply Application

The fitness data that Multiply collects is limited to the permissions that you as a user grant. This is set out in point 6.1.1 above. Multiply will continue to obtain your fitness data for as long as you are a Multiply member, and you have provided consent on your mobile/wearable device. This data is collected every time you log onto the Application.

You have the right to request your data to be deleted. This can be done by following the application on the Momentum Data Privacy Page and completing the form found under the POPIA online request form.

7 CONFIDENTIALITY AND SECURITY

7.1 Routine Precautions

MMH has physical, technological and procedural security safeguards in place and will use its best endeavours to protect your personal information.

Personal information refers to information that identifies or relates specifically to you, which for example include:

- Your name
- Age
- Gender
- Identity number
- Your assets and liabilities
- Your income
- Your employment details

- Payment records
- Your contact details
- Your marital status
- Family information
- Bank account information
- Medical or health information
- Fitness activity data
- Your policy information

Any information about what you buy, where you shop, where you bank, how you invest, your health behaviour, your health transactions and all related information will also be regarded as personal information.

In short, any information that we know about you will be regarded as your personal information.

8 YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

8.1 Securing personal information

Momentum Metropolitan will take all reasonable technical and organisational precautions to prevent the loss, misuse or alteration of your personal information. The company will store all the personal information in secured environments, for example on secured servers in a protected data centre.

8.2 Managing Data Privacy at Momentum Metropolitan Board Level and Reporting Frequency

The Momentum Metropolitan Board Risk Capital and Compliance Committee (BRCC) is a sub-committee of the Board that is accountable to address and manage the risk of data privacy and cyber security. The BRCC follows the board cycle and convenes on a quarterly basis. The Momentum Metropolitan Group Chief Digital and Transformation Officer (CDTO) is the business representative on BRCC for data privacy, data security and cyber security. The Momentum Metropolitan Chief Risk Officer provides guidance and input regarding appropriate Risk Management.

8.3 Employee Training on Cyber Security and Data Privacy

Employee Training on Cyber Security and Data Privacy forms part of ongoing compliance training. Cyber Security training is currently further required as a basic compliance training that all employees must complete. As part of the Data Privacy management, there is a specific focus on training, awareness as well as communication that will cover data privacy, data security and more detailed cyber security training as mandatory compliance training to all staff.

The POPIA management programme is actively managed at Momentum Metropolitan Group level with participation of all business entities and subsidiaries of Momentum Metropolitan.

8.4 Centralised Cyber Security and Data Security Functions and Coordination

To deal with Cyber Security and Data Privacy, two separate centralised functions exist within Momentum Metropolitan. The IT Security environment includes managing cyber security as a capability and the Data Management environment deals with the aspects of data privacy and extended data security and privacy which is enabled through IT security.

These two functions report into the Group Exco and is coordinated to work closely together to ensure coordinated efforts to best deliver on the relevant requirements.

8.5 Third Parties

We do not exercise control over affiliate parties' privacy policies - Personal information and third parties. Because we are not responsible for any representations or information or warranties or content on any website of an affiliate party (including websites linked to this website or websites facilitated by us), we do not exercise control over affiliate parties' privacy policies, and you should refer to the privacy policy of any such affiliate party to see how such party protects your privacy.

8.6 Sharing your Information

Your privacy is important to us. We will therefore not sell, rent or provide your personal information to unauthorised entities or other third parties, for their independent use, without your consent or the execution of the contract between MMH and yourself requires us to do so.

We may disclose your personal information to the following third parties:

- Other companies in the Momentum Metropolitan Holdings Group of companies.
- Selected third parties to provide us with services, including companies that provide us with technical support and assistance in respect of the website, companies that provide back-office services, companies that provide hosting services or, that track the website's activities and analytics, and companies engaged to market and distribute MMH products and/or services and conduct research on our behalf.
- Professional advisers, judicial, regulatory and law enforcement bodies; and
- A third party that acquires all or part of our assets or shares, or that succeeds us in carrying on all or a part of our business, whether by merger, acquisition, re-organisation or otherwise.
- In order for us to ensure that we meet your needs, we may collect and analyse your personal information and combine all the information that we have about you to compile a profile of you in order for us to personalise and tailor our services to meet your specific needs.

- Once we have collected and analysed your personal information, we may send you promotional material or details which we think may be of interest to you. If any of this promotional information relates to products, promotions, news or services of an affiliate party, and if you indicate that you would like more details, we may inform the affiliate party to contact you directly. We will, however, only inform an affiliate party to contact you directly if you have indicated that this is agreeable to you.

If at any stage, after you have given us your consent, you no longer wish us to use or share your personal information with an affiliate party; you may at any stage withdraw your consent. By choosing to withdraw your consent with affiliated third parties there may be an impact on our offering to you, and it will be explained to you on your request to withdraw your consent.

In any scenario, we will satisfy ourselves that we have a lawful basis on which to share the information and we will document our decision making. Should access to your information be requested in terms of the Promotion of Access to Information Act. No. 2 of 2000 ("PAIA"), we will notify you of such request in accordance with the terms of PAIA.

On rare occasions, we may be required to disclose your Personal Information due to legal or regulatory requirements. In such instances, we reserve the right to disclose your Personal Information as required in order to comply with our legal obligations, including but not limited to complying with court orders, warrants, subpoenas, service of process requirements or discovery requests.

We may also disclose data about our users to law enforcement officers or others, in the good faith belief that such disclosure is reasonably necessary to enforce this Privacy Policy, respond to claims that any content violates the rights of third-parties, or protect the rights, property, or our personal safety or the personal safety of our employees, clients or the general public.

8.7 Cross Border Sharing

We will only transfer your personal information to third parties in another country in any one or more of the following circumstances:

- Where your personal information will be adequately protected under the other country's laws or an agreement with the third-party recipient; and/or
- Where the transfer is necessary to enter into, or perform, under a contract with you or a contract with a third party that is in your interest; and/or
- Where you have consented to the transfer; and/or
- where it is not reasonably practical to obtain your consent, and the transfer is in your interest. This transfer will happen within the requirements and safeguards of the law.

- Where possible, the party processing your personal information in the other country will agree to apply the same level of protection as available by law in your country, or if the other country's laws provide better protection, the other country's laws would be agreed to and applied.
- An example of us transferring your personal information to another country would be when you make payments if you purchase goods or services in a foreign country.

PLEASE NOTE: As the MMH group operates in several countries, your personal information may be shared within the MMH group entities in other countries and processed in those countries in order to deliver on the contractual obligations.

9 RIGHTS OF DATA SUBJECTS

You have the ability to exercise your rights in terms of POPIA by visiting our website on www.momentum.co.za/momentum/support/privacy-policy and follow the prompts on either the "Online POPIA Requests;" or the "POPIA Request Forms" to submit your requests in terms of the below.

In terms of data privacy laws, you have certain rights including the right to –

- review, or request access or copies of your Personal Information which is within our custody and control together with details about how we use that information. If you think any of the Personal Information that we hold about you is inaccurate, you may also request that we correct or rectify it;
- in certain circumstances, to require us to stop processing your Personal Information;
- to request that we delete or erase Personal Information in certain circumstances (such as in accordance with local data retention legal obligations);
- withdraw any consent to processing that you have given us and prevent further processing if there is no other legitimate ground upon which we can process your Personal Information;
- restrict processing: you can require certain Personal Information to be marked as restricted for processing in certain circumstances;
- data portability i.e., you can ask us to transmit the Personal Information that you have provided to us to a third party;
- object to automated decision-making, including profiling; and
- lodge a complaint with the relevant data protection regulator if you think we are in breach of any applicable data protection legislation.

In relation to all of these rights, please email us at the email address set out in paragraph 12 below. Please note that we may, where permitted under applicable law, charge a small administrative fee and/or request proof of identity. We will respond to your requests within all applicable timeframes.

In certain circumstances (for example where required or permitted by law), we might not be able to provide you with access to some of your Personal Information, but where appropriate we will notify you of the reasons for this. You have the right to be informed in writing by the company in writing as soon as reasonably possible of any breach or suspected breach. The notification must contain enough information to allow the data subject to take protective measures against the potential consequences of the breach.

You also have a duty to inform us of any changes to your personal information, it is important that the personal information we hold about you is accurate and current. Please keep us informed if your personal information changes during your working relation with us.

10 CHANGES TO PRIVACY POLICY

Perusing amendments to the policy. Our right to amend this Privacy Policy. We reserve the right, in our sole discretion to amend (including without limitation, by the addition of new terms and conditions) this Privacy Policy from time to time. You agree to review the Privacy Policy whenever you visit this website for any such amendments. Save as expressly provided to the contrary in this Privacy Policy, the amended version of the Privacy Policy shall supersede and replace all previous versions thereof.

11 WHICH LAWS APPLY?

This Privacy Policy will be governed by and construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of South Africa. To the extent that a court has jurisdiction over any dispute which may arise out of or in connection with this Privacy Policy, we both submit to the jurisdiction of the South African courts.

Outside of South Africa we do operate in Guernsey, Ghana, Botswana, United Kingdom, Lesotho, Namibia, Mozambique, Mauritius and the applicable privacy laws apply in those countries and jurisdictions of the relevant courts.
